Information Sheet

Migratory Bird Import/Export 50 CFR 21.21

In order to expedite the processing of your application for a Migratory Bird Import/Export Permit, make sure you include the following with your completed Fish and Wildlife License/Permit Application, Form 3-200-6.

- (a) Identify the species by scientific and common names and numbers of migratory birds being imported or exported. State whether they are live birds, parts, nests, or eggs.
 - (b) List band numbers, if applicable.
 - (c) State if captive-bred or wild caught, if applicable.
2. State whether this is an import or an export permit request and the date and port of entry or exit of the intended shipment.
3. Briefly explain the reason the birds are being imported or exported
4. Identify the country of origin of the birds if importing and their intended destination if exporting.
5. Include the names and addresses of the people/organization from whom or to whom the birds are being imported/exported.
6. Give names and addresses of anyone who will be assisting you. They must possess a permit or be listed as subpermittee under your permit, in addition to appropriate State authorization.
7. Identify the location where records will be kept.
8. List telephone numbers, including area code, where you can be reached between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

There is a $25 processing fee payable to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in check or money order for this permit. Institutions which qualify under 50 CFR 13.11(d)(3) may be exempt from fees. Exception to designated ports can be combined with this permit providing the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Division of Law Enforcement concurs.

The public reporting burden for these reporting requirements is estimated to be 1 hour, including time for reviewing instructions, gathering and maintaining data, and completing and reviewing the forms. Comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the reporting requirement(s) should be directed to the Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, MS 224 ARLSQ, Fish and Wildlife Service, Washington, D.C. 20240, or the Office of Management and Budget, Attention: Desk Officer for the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20503.

An agency may not conduct and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless a currently valid OMB control number is displayed.
